

IS ENGLISH YOUR SECOND LANGUAGE?

ASK FOR AN INTERPRETER

In most cases, medical offices should provide professional interpreting at no cost to you.

Pharmacies should translate all medicine labels and use interpreters to advise customers on their usage.

Suggest these services to your provider

In-Person Interpreting

The International Institute of Buffalo

883-1900

www.iibuff.org

Journey's End Refugee Services

882-4963, extension 207

www.jersbuffalo.org

Interpreting by Phone

Language Line Solutions

1(800) 752-6096

www.language.com

Many languages provided!

IF YOUR REQUEST FOR INTERPRETING IS DENIED CONTACT:

Coordinated Refugee/Asylee Legal Services Project
853-9555, extension 667
crls@legalaidbuffalo.org

Walk-in hours:
Tuesdays 1-4pm
Fridays 10am-1pm
2495 Main St., Suite 317
Buffalo

